WHAT DOES THE PRENATAL SUPPORT PACK DO?

Eating a healthy, balanced diet can help you get the proper vitamins and minerals you need, but even the best eaters have nutritional gaps and fall short on key nutrients. If you are trying to conceive or are pregnant, a high-quality prenatal vitamin can help fill those nutritional gaps. While most prenatal vitamins on the market today attempt to package what you need into a single pill to be taken at any time throughout the day, IDLife's Prenatal Pack comes with 5 different vitamins specifically designed to be taken at the right time of day, to help provide you and your child more of what each of you needs and support optimal absorption of the nutrients.

WHAT IS OFFERED IN THE PRENATAL SUPPORT PACK?

Each box comes with a 30-day supply of convenient daily strip packs divided into morning and evening. The box includes 30 single-strip AM packs which include 1 Advanced Daily, 1 Methylation+, and 1 Iron. The box also includes 30 single-strip PM packs which include 1 Omega-3 Complex.
